TESTIMONIALS

“Len and his team at INLANDLIGHT have great, creative minds. Took a very technical concept and delivered a unique, custom design integrated on a highly complex, yet functional system. Beyond that, Len was very kind and communicated well during the project. I’d recommend Len for your project.”

John Rowa
President at Lemonade Stand

“INLANDLIGHT provides solid internet, and IT consulting for our firm, and has been our vendor of choice for over 10 years. They have created many custom designed applications for both internal business management and external client facing requirements. All projects completed on time, within our budget, and at fair prices. They continue to provide IT systems support and excellent customer service with faster than average turnaround times. We highly recommend them to any growing organization.”

Peter Afrasiabi
Managing Partner, ONE LLP

“I always appreciated Len’s creative approach which he brought to the table to solve problems for customers and to provide a competitive advantage for his clients. Len has always been an a leader in creativity and innovation, always on the cutting edge. Additionally, Len has the ability to apply his creative ideas in a powerful manner to really impact a customer’s bottom line.
